Use labour market information as an opportunity!!

Research trends to consider in career planning include retiring baby boomers, globalization, use of computer & online skills and growth trends in specific industries including jobs that adapt to multiple industries (ALIS).

Inclusive Post-Secondary Education	Post-Secondary Residence	Indigenous Students
Looking for an inclusive post-secondary education experience for your student? Many colleges and universities offer seats for students with special needs in a huge variety of programs where they experience campus life and consider career opportunities. If your child is PDD eligible, check out inclusive education on specific institutions' websites or Inclusion Alberta for more information.  Will you require learning accommodations?  Connect with Student Services &amp; Accessibility Services EARLY to begin the process of obtaining accommodations, or to review and manage approved accommodations. These processes can take time, and there will be deadlines, so you will want to start early and ensure the supports are in place before you start your studies.	Want to be more closely connected to your post-secondary community? LIVE WHERE YOU STUDY! Enjoy the benefits and support geared for student life in residence. Most post-secondary institutions encourage you to apply for residence early (with your original application). Keep in mind, many are reserved on a first come, first served basis. Choose from the many options available: individual or shared accommodation, meal plan options and suite styles such as studio, bachelor, or apartment.  Concerned about living in residence and COVID? Check out your post-secondary site for details on the additional health measures in place and vaccination requirements.	Be sure to check out the Indigenous learner initiatives for post-secondary on the High School + Website.  McMichael Art Collection Indigenous Post-Secondary Google Classroom - Many institutions offer Indigenous specific scholarships. Join the new Indigenous Post-Secondary Google Classroom - code nu6zwh6. BRSD Equity Coordinator, Eric Jensen, is continually adding information and details for our Indigenous population.
